

What will tomorrow bring?

Life is full of ups and downs
There is no guarantee of what tomorrow ~~brings~~ holds in store and no one can ~~foresee~~ ~~predict~~ foresee.

What sudden changes lie ahead
What challenges will meet
What hopes hopes will reach fruition
Which dreams end in defeat.

We often wish the book of life would spread its pages wide so we could learn our destiny by what we read inside.

But this will never ~~happen~~ happen
We were only meant to scan the pattern of existence in a shorter smaller span.

Yes as we look around us we find most lives contain a pretty equal measurement of happiness and pain.

and if we make each hour
as our single day Important and fulfilling in some very special way.

We're to have a reservoir of untapped energy to meet tomorrow's challenges
What ever they may be.

I Love You
