Archibald and Agnes (White) McLarty had a son William White McLarty who married Jane Phillips. Archibald Leroy McLarty was their son. He was highly educated and taught school. When about grown he shot a deer with a rifle. The deer made a fight, so he ran to a sapling, catching the deer by the horn with one hand, got his knife out and opened it with his teeth, then was able to cut the deer in the throat. He served in the Confederate Army, was captured and held as a prisoner. His wife had given him up for dead, but he walked in, unannounced, one Sunday morning.
